Did Not Have a Chance to Serve

9 June 1917 L. L. Mohney Killed

Lester L. Mohney, son of J. W. Mohney, of Grange, was killed last Saturday at Lawton, Mich., when a large block of cement fell upon him. He was 23 years of age, and was a young man of sterling qualities. The body arrived here at 3 o'clock this afternoon and was taken to the home of his parents. Interment will take place Sunday forenoon from Ebenezer Church. The K. of P. lodge of Grange, of which he was a member, will attend the funeral in a body.

Lester Mohney died on June 12, 1917 just one week after he was registered for the draft.

Two Mauk descendants died soon after the armistice was signed. Neigh Carrier was registered for the draft on June 5, 1918 and died of "influenza pneumonia" on November 25, 1918. Ezra Thompson was registered on September 12, 1918 and died on November 13, 1918 from pneumonia brought on by influenza.

WW I Draft Registration

The United States declared war on Germany on April 6, 1917 and the Selective Service Act was passed by Congress the following month. About 24 million men, almost a quarter of the population, were registered under this act and among them were 255 descendants of Jacob & Susannah.

A form or card was filled out for each registrant listing his name, date and place of birth, residence, citizenship, occupation and a personal description. In some cases information valuable to genealogists such as whether the registrant was single or married and whether he had children was included. The card was also signed by the registrant.

Mauk Descendants Who Registered

Jacob & Susannah's daughter, Dorthea, had only one eligible male descendant, William H. Haines (1872-1942), though no registration card was found for him. All of their other adult children had descendants among the 255 who were registered.

They were spread over 22 states. While two-thirds lived in Penn., about 40 lived west of the Mississippi and a handful lived south of the Mason-Dixon line. Forty, about 15%, had the surname Mauk.

Farming and mining were the most common jobs accounting for about 25% and 20% respectively. Three men even listed "farming and mining" as their occupation. Almost 10% worked for a railroad company in some capacity. There were two each of the following: ministers, pipe fitters, plumbers, pressmen, salesmen and watchmen. There was also a bank clerk, barber, butcher, chemist, civil engineer, dentist, doctor, glassworker, house decorator, lineman, meter reader, munitions worker, potter, quarryman, ship builder, showman, state policeman, teamster, tire maker, and well driller.

Veterans Compensation Files

The "Veterans' Compensation Act" was passed by the Pennsylvania legislature on January 5, 1934. It provided for the payment of $10 for each month a Pennsylvania vet had served in the US military during the Spanish-American War or "the World War". The maximum payment was $200 and came during the depths of the Great Depression and after the Bonus Army had marched on Washington, DC in 1932.

The applications of these veterans are online and list the veteran's military service as well as other information. Here is Oral Kunselman's showing the battles he was in.

The first example above shows that Fairy Bush served overseas as part of the AEF (American Expeditionary Force) and was promoted to sergeant.

The second example shows Frank Swartz was in the naval reserve and activated in July of 1918.

Records of Disabled Veterans

The Historical Register of National Homes for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, 1866-1938 is part of the National Archives and is online. This example shows a record for Hiram Carrier Thompson.

Hiram was born in 1867 and must have been named after his uncle. In 1893 he quarreled with Charles Shaffer who later sought revenge by throwing nitric acid on Hiram's face at the general store in Coolspring.

Hiram suffered severe injuries but healed enough to join the army in 1898. This record shows he was in the hospital many times. He died at a VA facility in Illinois in 1936.
