

THE JACOB MAUK FAMILY.

The children of Jacob Mauk, born in 1792 and died in 1866. and his wife Susannah (Walters) Mauk, born in 1799 and died in 1854. Jacob was buried in Ebenezer Church Cemetery and Susannah was buried in St Johns Cemetery near to Ebenezer Cemetery.

Catherine (Lingenfelter) Mauk, born February 23, 1816; died May 18, 1863; married John Wiry Lingenfelter, born January 2nd, 1816; died November 6, 1900.

Catherine buried with three of her children who had died at the same time from Diphtheria, in the Family Farm Cemetery in Perry Township, Jefferson County, Pa. There were several others buried in this cemetery but at this late date we cannot tell who they were. John Wiry Lingenfelter was buried in the Ebenezer Church Cemetery located near Sprinkle Mills, Pa.

CHILDREN.

A. Zacharius Howe Lingenfelter, born January 5th, 1836; died in December 28th, 1899; married 1st Mary Lampden, born in 1834 and died in 1910. Buried along Crooked Creek, Rayne Township, Indiana County Pennsylvania, near Gabrielson.

1. Anna Mary, born 8-14-1856; died 8-7-1933. aged (77) married Lee Montgomery.
2. John Wiry Zeth Lingenfelter, born 2-6-1860; died 6-9-1931. (71); married Rebecca Jane Shirley.
When Zach wrote the letter to his father in 1856 he was twenty years old and had one child.-- Anna Mary born in 1856. Evidently Zach came back and had six more children. One, Samuel wasn't born until September 6th, 1869. Zach never saw his son Samuel as he left four or five months before he was born.
3. William Martin Lingenfelter, born April 12th, 1861; died March 24th, 1924. (63) married Mary Cecily Osborne.
4. Imilda Jane Lingenfelter, April 5th, 1863, died February 17th, 1912. (49) married Peter Curtis Montgomery.
5. Susan M. Lingenfelter, April 10th 1865; died November 30th, 1946. (81). Married William Carney.
6. George Edward Lingenfelter, born March 19th, 1867; died March 8th, 1910. (43) married Laura Wynkoop.
7. Samuel Z. Lingenfelter born September 6th, 1869; died January 21st, 1944. (75) married Margaret Ray.

Zacharius left his family in May or June 1869, four months before Samuel Z. was born. Zach was never heard from again until World War Two. He had left his wife with six children born and Samuel on the way. I have heard several different stories why he left. But I suppose time will erase these stories and his reasons for going will become one of the imponderables. I have been told that about that time (1865-1875) many other men did the same thing. One just has to wonder.

I found out in March 1971 that in the southern part of the state of Indiana near Loogoootie that Zachariah married Mary Truelove, October 27th, 1870, about sixteen months after he left his first family. He lived with his in-laws during which time three of his second family were born. Then he moved to Ohio where several of his children were born including Loren. Then he with his family returned to Loogoootie where the remainder of his family was born. Zach died on the 28th of December 1899.

Mary E. Truelove, his second wife was born June 23rd, 1852. She died November 4th, 1918. (66) Both are interred in the Truelove Church Cemetery south of Loogoootie, Indiana.

John Albert Lingenfelter sent me a Christmas Card and wanted some information about where we all fit into the picture. I wrote him and his wife trying to explain where we all fit in. In turn they sent me a family picture that was taken about 10 years ago. They have one of the finest looking families that I have ever seen. I am very proud to be related to such a fine looking group of people.

Russell Downs has been to see the John Albert Lingenfelter Family twice but they were away both times.

In one of their letters to me they said that they had been to visit the John Lingenfelter Family in Indiana or Creekside Pa. And the John Lingenfelter family from Indiana had been to see them. What they couldn't understand was that they hadn't said anything bout or part of the Lingenfelter Family.

We are not in possession of an account of all of the sons-in-law and daughters-in-law of the descendants of Catherine (Mauck) Lingenfelter. But we do have a very interesting account of Peter S. Hetrick the husband of Susannah Lingenfelter. It follows.

John David Hetrick (Jack) a grandson of Susannah (Hetrick) Lingenfelter, and a son of Edgar Hetrick was always interested in his family tree. He came to visit me one time and we spent a very interesting half day together. Jack furnished me with the information regarding Peter Hetrick. Jack was more than an ordinary man. He was well read and intelligent and it would not be fair to Jack not to include the story of his grandfather Peter Hetrick in our records.

PETER SNYDER HETRICK, born 1829-1911. (32).
 Peter Hetrick was born in Northumberland County, Pennsylvania on a farm near the village of Rebuck, on March 1st, 1829. His father was John H. Hetrick and his mother's maiden name was Snyder.

His father, John H. Hetrick was a farmer in that neighborhood and was reasonably successful. His mother apparently was from that section, of farmer parentage, and there is a small settlement there called Snyder taken from the family name.

Peter was christened Peter SNYDER Hetrick from his mother's maiden name.

There were six (6) boys and (1) girl in the family and Peter was the youngest boy. Both of his parents and all of his brothers and sister are buried in the Himmell Church Cemetery at Rebuck, Pa.

Peter as a boy showed promise of a later skill, was apprenticed to learn the cabinet-making trade at one of the establishments in that neighborhood. He completed his trade training at about the age 17-18, and then together with several of his boyhood friends, decided to travel westward seeking employment among the new furniture factories that were starting up all over in the heart of western Pennsylvania's virgin forests.

The boys landed in Brookville, Pa. but could not find employment there. Peter after looking around and making inquiries got a job in a new furniture factory at Sprankle Mills, Pennsylvania.

Peter worked at Sprankle Mills for a period of time, but then he quit there to take a better job at Clayville, Pa. which is now the West End section of Punxsutawney, Pa. Apparently this was in 1849, and he worked at Gillespie's Machine and Cabinet Making Shop as a cabinet maker and other duties. At that time a man's labor activities were not always confined to his trade.

While Petee was working in Sprinkle Mills he met and became interested in Susanna Lingenfelter, a young daughter of John Ulry Lingenfelter, a farmer of Oliver Township, Jefferson County, Pennsylvania. Susanna was just sixteen years of age when she married Peter in 1854. Peter was (25) and they set up housekeeping in Clayville, Pa., to make their home.

Over the ensuing years there were 14 children born to this union. Seven boys and seven girls. All of these except the youngest were born in Clayville, Pa. Of these fourteen children seven died in infancy or early childhood. Some of them are buried in the Clayville Cemetery and the rest in the Old Cemetery, North Findley Street, Punxsutawney, Pa.

In 1875 Peter became a partner of Thaddeus Campbell in the Punxsy Foundry and Machine Works and Planing Mill. At some later date a Mr. Long must have been included in the partnership because it was known as Hetrick, Long, and Campbell. There is print of this establishment in one of the Older Histories of Jefferson County, in the Punxsutawney Free Library.

The youngest child at the time (1853) 1874 was only a few years old at the time that Peter moved his family from Clayville up town to Punxsutawney. The house they first lived in up town was on the southwest corner of Union and Penn Streets which was either burned down or was badly scorched. Ha.

They then moved into a house on the south side of Union Street that stood just west of what is now the Baptist Parsonage. This house was later moved back to the alley so that new yellow brick could be built up front.

Peter and his family lived in this house on Union St. until they had completed building the new house and home at what is now # 217 East Liberty St. At the time this house was built there were only two other houses on Liberty Street.--one on the southwest corner of Liberty and Jefferson Streets. and the other at the end of South Findley on Liberty. All three houses are still stand and are occupied.

Some time later Peter owned and operated a planing mill and foundry on the north end of Union Street, Punxsutawney, Pa. It was here where he manufactured the different farm machinery needed at that time, such as plows, windmills for cleaning grain, etc. Some of this equipment is still in existence and is still usable.

Susanna died in 1911-- age (73) and Peter died in 1915, age (82) Both are buried in Circke Hill Cemetery, Punxsutawney Pennsylvania.

As can be seen the writer had nothing to go by but his memory. I may have left out some but it wasn't done on purpose.

The story is told of Uncle Jake Lingenfelter being a strong man. He could upset a barrel of salt and loaden it on the back end of a wagon himself. He was Union soldier during the Civil War and lost an eye from a piece of shrapnell. The calves of his legs were so big that he always had to split the top of his boots. He was skidding logs one time for Dan Fair using a team of oxen. He was always breaking cant hook handles. So Mr. Fair had an extra large handle made. Well the first day this big handle was too heavy to use. So Uncle Jake hooked it into a tree and then hooked the team of oxen to it and of course it broke. When he went in at noon he threw the broken handle on the ground and told Mr. Fair that it wasn't any stronger than the others.

Uncle Jake's Walter was exactly three years older than I was, his birthday being on January 22, 1894.

This is the end of the information I have on the fourteen children of CATHERINE MAUK LINGENFELTER and JOHN ULRY LINGENFELTER. I realize that the records are incomplete but it is difficult to get people to respond if they are not sincerely interested. If any one reading this finds discrepancies feel free to make the necessary corrections or additions as the case may be.

The following history of EVE MAUE LINGENFELTER AND JOHN ULRY LINGENFELTER and their six children is not complete either. I used the written records where I had them but the other records are taken from my memory and are no doubt inaccurate and incomplete in places. Anyone reading this history and finds mistakes should sit down and add the correct information or forever hold their peace.

Mabel Gahegan Watkins was instrumental in finding Zacharius Howe Lingenfelter. While visiting one of her sons in an army camp down south during World War Two she met some boys who resembled some of the Lingenfelters. One boy told her that there were lots of Lingenfelters where he came from. He said he was from the southern part of the state of Indiana near a place called Loogoootie. When Mabel returned home she informed Eleanor Knight about these people. Eleanor was greatly interested and decided to go out to the state of Indiana and find out for sure. She thought that this might just be the key to the secret of her Uncle Zachariah Lingenfelter's disappearance.
 Eleanor went to see them. Zach's secret was no longer a secret.
 But Mabel was the key by which this most fascinating story was brought to light.

The first pages are devoted to Lingenfelter's whose mothers were CATHERINE & EVE MAUK. Eleven of Catherine's children lived to maturity and married and usually had very large families. Four of Eve's children lived to maturity and married, Frank having died young and Gurn never married. This meant that fifteen of John Ulry's children married and several of them had large families.
BUT THE END IS NOT YET.

6. Samuel A. Miller, born- 1894 - 1966. buried Palmyra, Pa. Minister of the gospel in the Evangelical United Brethren Church, North East Conference.

7. Alpha A. Miller, 1897 - 1917. ?????. The question mark after his death or the date of his death are there because he was in the Navy in WW I. Three months before he would have been discharged he came home, got some money from his father. He was never heard of or from after that. The United States Navy never found him either.

The information regarding Susan (Mauk) Miller was contributed by her son, Rev. C.T. Miller who forgot to give me the date of his birth. John. W. Lingenfelter.

VI. Sarah Loretta Mauk, Isaac Mauk's 8th child b-9-20-1868; died -6-6-1942. (74). Married Eliza Shick, b- 11-15-1864 (75). He was born near Worthville, Jeff. Co. Pa. Married at Brookville, Pa.; -12-23-1886.

5. Jake, b- 2-15-1934; married Josephine Yeafol b-10-19-1932. They were married 9-30-1961. Both love to hunt and are good shots. Woop, I may have these boys mixed up.

Herbert, born -5-8-1896; died 3-18-1899. Lyman's Aon. Lyman's Family consisted of daughters who were excellent homemakers and mothers. His two sons Harry and Jake were two of Oliver Townships most outstanding sons.. Books could be written and should have been about the experiences they had while serving as two of the most outstanding State Policemen our State ever produced. Both were excellent riders and expert Pistol Shots. Jake was Deputy Superintendent of State police when a change in administrations forced his resignation. Had the Republicans made it Jake would have been the Superintendent of State Police in Pennsylvania. He lost no time though as the Federal Bureau of Investigation hired him immediately. That was the kind of men they wanted.

- IX. Jacob B. Mauk born -10-17-1826 or 27.; brother of Eve and Catherine Mauk. was store keeper, dry goods merchant, and banker and a raw fur dealer in Perrysville now Hamilton, Pa. He was a good kind hearted man and as the story goes many people, including some of his relatives, couldn't or wouldn't pay their ~~XXXXXX~~ honest debts, that he lost everything he had. But that wasn't all. During the summer of 1876 an epidemic of diphtheria went through the country. Six of Jacob's sons died in the Month of July. His wife Elizabeth, died on the second of August the same year. They are all buried in the upper part of the Perry Church Cemetery and have markers. Jacob B. is buried in the Hamilton Cemetery, Hamilton, Pa. This was a terrible loss. There were many sons in the family, 14 or more. There was at least one daughter we know of. Most of the children were born in the 1860's. Jacob's sister Catherine (Mauk) Hagenfelter lost three children, born about the same time and buried at the same time on the family farm to be joined by their mother in May, 1863. She never heard of the Battle of Gettysburg.

Should have been No. 7. The Family Of ~~XXXXXX~~ Polly (Mary) (Hopkins) Mauk should have been written up between the families of Joseph Mauk and Isaac Mauk. With so many records to write up it is easy to miss one or get it in the wrong chronological order. This I have done in this case. I'm sorry. But if anyone wants to write up a perfect history let them start from scratch as I have done. I'll be the first one to congratulate them. I know I have made many mistakes in typing and arranging but I haven't heard of any one else writing up this history. There are too many important people in our Mauk family to forget them. And that's exactly what would happen if some one wouldn't go to some trouble. So many make promises but don't even respond in any way. Maybe they want to be forgotten.

1. Polly (Mary) (Hopkins) Mauk born-6-30-1823 in Perryville (Now Hamilton) Pa. died 1-19-1890. Married Thomas Hopkins, b-8-9-1806; d-10-3-1881. (75) Both buried in Presbyterian Church Cemetery near North Summit, McCalmont Twp. Jeff. Co. Pa. Thomas Hopkins was born in Huntington Co. Pa.; and reared in Indiana County. When a young man he came to Perry Township County where he married Mary (Polly) Mauk who was born near Perryville, now Hamilton, June 30th, 1823. This proves that the Jacob Mauk family was residing in Perry Township, Jefferson County, Pa. when Mary was born. Also that the Mauks preceded the Lingenfelters to Jefferson County by fifteen to eighteen years.
  1. John H. Hopkins, b-12-1-1841, was an inventor, having many patents. He was a barn builder having built 50 to 60 barns in Jefferson County. Some of those barns are still standing solid and true. John built a barn for my father and Uncle Gorn in 1915.

He built and patented one of the best pile drivers Ever invented. John was offered $80,000 for his patent but turned it down. The pile driver was used when the Shawmut R. R. went through our county in 1910.-1911., on a section below Timblin. It rusted up right there.

2. Susanna Hopkins married Benjamin McCann.
3. Jane of Punxsutawney, born 12-21-1844. owned several pieces of property in Punxsutawney.
4. Robert - killed when a steam boiler exploded in Knox Township in 1892.
  1. Had a son Robert who was a poet, a writer of prose, a lover of good music, especially of the violin, which he said was the sweetest music on earth. He was an excellent talker and story teller and mimic. A great personality.
5. Jacob of Knoxdale--merchant.
6. James, Knox Township Farmer, sawyer, fiddler, and a fine story teller. In fact all the Hopkins boys learned to play the fiddle. James trapped the last bear that was legally trapped in Jefferson County. He was a great hunter of Bee Trees. A great mimic.
7. Mary Hopkins (Hutchison) married John Hutchinson, New Bethlehem, Pa. Organ and piano salesman.
8. Eliza, unmarried lived in Punxsutawney.
9. Anna married married Beverly Morrison and died a young woman.
10. Aaron--farmer and fine man.
11. Eva--died in childhood.
12. Maggie married George Johns, Loraine, Ohio.
13. McKinley Hopkins, banker, Alliance, Ohio.

- XI. 2. Alexander Mauk, b-12-19-1829. "Uncle Alack" married Rebecca Nolph, b,- 1825, a sister of Enos Nolph.
1. Susan.
  2. Mary.
  3. Martin H. (Mart) I knew him, b- 1861-64. He lived near the Millin School and his step son went to school to me there.
    1. A stepson Lynn.
  4. Elizabeth born 1864.
  5. Benjamin L., born 1867- died young.
  6. Catharine, born -1866.
  7. Weston, (Wess) born 1871.
  8. Charlotte.
  9. Laura.

III.

The family of Barbara (Mauk) Reed and Thomas Reed.

1. Barbara Mauk, b- 3-27-1835; d-11-2-1905.
married Thomas Reed, b-6-21-1832; d 11-2-1905.
Died same day as his wife. Both buried in Ebenezer Church Cemetery. Lived near Grange.
Thomas was in the Civil War. During one battle a rebel bullet passed through his liver-back. Had it killed him his ten other children wouldn't have been born.

I prize highly a pair of blacksmith tongs made by Uncle Thomas Reed when he started to learn the trade of blacksmith. He used them for years.
At that time good steel cost 60 cents per hundred pounds.

1. Eve Ann b-10-18-1857; married William
Roush. Lived near Sprankle Mills, Pa.
Had on son, Blain, who died of Typhoid Fever. Eve Ann was named for my grandmother Eve Mauk Lingenfelter.
2. Clara, b-9-2-1858.

Isaac Austin Carrier same as (Buzz).

Many years have gone by much too quickly but I can still hear Buzz Carrier, my Uncle Gurn, and my father Hillis R. still singing those everlasting Hymns at the Mauk Reunion. Fuzze and Gurn were great Tenor singers. Hillis a great Bass singer. " When We All Get To Heaven" was one song they liked to sing. Another one. "God Be with you Till We Meet Again" always was the last song to be sung. Many could not join in as they had a pain in their throats which prevented singing.

Now all those voices have been stilled long ago. But I hope to hear them again in a better land where there will be no more sorrow, pain nor heart ache.
